

All Years Combined Art Project in Association with St.John's Meads and Jevington Churches

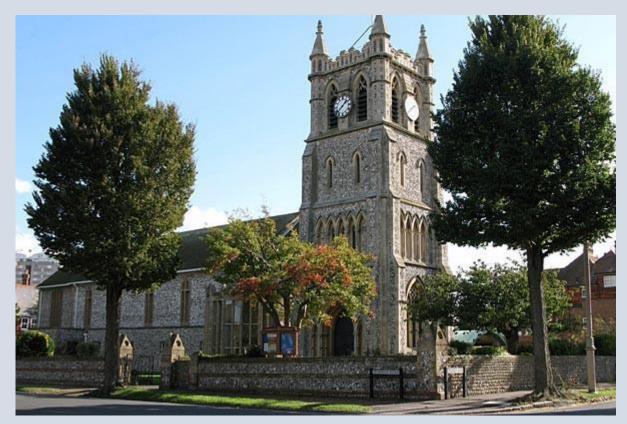

Why are we remembering the end of the first World War?

TIME TO SAY THANK YOU

100 years ago the guns fell silent on the world's first truly global war. We believe it is time to think about all of those who lived through this tragic and remarkable time - and who put Britain on the path to becoming what it is today. It's time to say Thank You for all they did for us.

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM

This beautiful tree is a rare Weeping Elm (Ulmus Montana Serpentina).

St Andrew's

Church,

Jevington

It was planted 100 years ago by the Reverend Percy Ferris to commemorate the end of the First World War. We, at St Andrews church, thought its longevity should be recognised and we decided to adorn it with poppies on the centenary of the Armistice to remember those who perished in the First World War. The recyclable poppies were made by the schoolchildren of St. Johns Meads school, the villagers of Jevington and members of St Andrews Flower Guild. The church has been decorated too with pictures by the children of St Johns and Willingdon Preschool so please go in and have a look. If you would like to fill in a poppy leaf in memory of a loved one who perished in any war there is a display in the church where you can do this. If you would like to leave a donation in the box in the church we would be very grateful and the proceeds will be split between the Royal British Legion and the Flower Guild.
