- The Sovereign's orb and sceptre are two essential items used during the coronation of a monarch in United Kingdom. They are seen as authoritative symbols of Monarchy and Power.

A collection of handmade puppets and craft materials on a wooden surface. Two puppets with yellow hair and gold crowns are visible on the left. One puppet has green eyes and a red nose, while the other has white eyes and a red nose. They are surrounded by white and purple tulle fabric, a pink ribbon bow, and various craft supplies like gold and silver streamers and small decorative items.

A vibrant floral bunting decoration is displayed on a wooden surface. It is constructed from numerous white, scalloped-edge paper plates arranged in a circular pattern. The plates are decorated with bright pink, yellow, and green tissue paper, which is crumpled and layered to create a full, flower-like appearance. A wide, shiny gold ribbon is draped across the top of the arrangement. The entire piece is set against a dark, textured background.
