Celebration Assembly

There were so many different things to celebrate today!

Well done to all our artists, Spanish superstars, handwriting, Lexia, mathematics, times tables and number facts certificate winners and Congratulations to all of our Rainbow Awards winners! Have a lovely weekend everyone!

Out of School Achievements

Eric in Year 5 won the Caring for our Community Cup for playing a piano concert for the residents of a care home.

Iris in Reception won a creativity award for a piece of artwork inspired by family.

A team of netball players competed in a tournament and were shining examples of the St John's Meads vision throughout the afternoon. Well done team!

Book Fair

The book fair has arrived today!

Visit the hall before and after school on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday to have a look at all the lovely books on offer.

Thanks to all our lovely parents and carers, the school now receives the top tier 40% commission on any sales made so this is a great way to support the school.

Red Nose Day – Friday 16th March

For Red Nose Day next Friday, the school will not be taking donations or fundraising in school.

However, should you wish to support the charity by buying a red nose elsewhere, the children can wear them at school on Friday 15th if they would like to.
